

The Privilege Institute Press Policy

The White Privilege Symposium is a private, educational event. The WPC does not provide admission to the conference to the press, whether print, visual, electronic, or any other form of media, whether personal or professional. No member of the press may attend in their capacity as a member of the press.

Members of the Press may register and pay to attend the conference as attendees. By doing so, you expressly agree to refrain from writing or publishing any articles about the conference without written permission. In addition you agree to:

- Identify yourself as a member of the press, show ID, and provide both of these signed documents when you check in at registration.
- Follow all conference attendee guidelines, including the silencing of cell phones during presentations. Refer to your registration informational packet for these rules and guidelines including the Community Agreement.
- Wear your name tag at all times while attending the conference.
- Refrain from interviewing speakers, presenters and other conference attendees, without the permission of WPS/TPI.
- Refrain from any type of video and/or audio recording of conference institutes, keynotes, workshops, caucus sessions or any other conference activity without express written consent by Dr. Eddie Moore, Jr. No content, including handouts, programs, etc. may be reproduced, posted, distributed or disseminated without permission of the presenter and TPI.
- Failure to respect any of these rules will result in your being removed from the conference and you will be barred from TPI events.
- Failure to respect any of these rules, including sharing of any material, may result in a lawsuit, in which you will be responsible for the TPI legal fees.
- Views expressed by speakers or participants do not represent the views of the WPS/TPI.

If you have questions please email wpcacademics@gmail.com.

I have read, understand, and agree to comply with the forgoing policies, rules, and procedures.
